

Benvenuti, Welcome

You are about to enjoy a meal that is steeping with family traditions, both old and new.

There's a small town nestled quietly in the mountains of Sicily known as Montelepre. Imagine yourself there right now.

You are standing on the piazza of a centuries old stucco home looking out over the deep blue Mediterranean Sea. The afternoon conversation of the townspeople blends with the clatter of a passing cart and the cackle of scattering chickens. The air is thick with the aroma of prepared meals, fresh fruits, spices and vegetables. The land lies fertile and green. This is Sicily. And this is where our story begins.

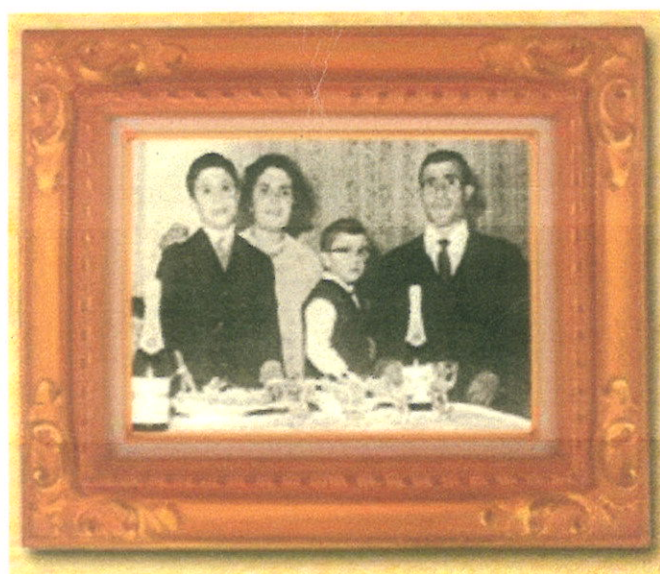

Like many Italian family men in small villages, my father, Salvatore Tinervia, wanted more for his wife, my mother Vincenza Tinervia, and his sons, my older brother Giacomo and myself Giovanni. So, in 1971, the allure of America brought my father's young family to Detroit where he found work in construction with my uncle Giuseppe. And my mother worked as a seamstress. They worked hard and saved until, in 1976 we moved to an up and coming city with lots of family values and heritage, Grand Rapids.

With the money my parents saved, we opened "Salvatore's Pizza and Italian Restaurant" at 660 Stocking Ave. NW. Our culture and upbringing gave us the talents that make our family's old world recipes special.

We take pride and careful attention to the quality of our food and with the dedication of our whole family, it has taken Salvatore's a step up, and in 1986 a few steps over to the present location, 654 Stocking. And with my family's addition including my brother's wife Frances, and their two sons, Salvatore and Gabriel, my wife Barbara and our son Emmanuel. Here is where my family mixes tradition, the old and new.

Now, sit back.
Savor your meal.
Enjoy a beverage
and be sure to make a date to come back and visit.

Grazie!
